

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. RULES AND REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED

IN THE

Library of the State of Maryland.

1. The Library shall be opened every day during the Session of the Legislature, (Sundays excepted) from 9 o'clock, A. M., and closed at the time of the daily adjournment of both houses; and from 5 o'clock to 7 P. M. except at night Sessions, when it shall remain open until both Houses may adjourn.

2. In the recess of the Legislature, it shall be opened one day in every week, from 9 o'clock, A. M. till 1 o'clock, P. M., and from 3 o'clock, P. M. till 6 o'clock, P. M., to wit, on Tuesdays, except during the Sessions of the Courts of Appeals and Chancery, and the Executive Council, when it shall be kept open as it is during the Session of the Legislature.

3. It shall be the duty of the Librarian to label and number the Books, place them on the shelves, preserve due Lists and Catalogues of the same. He shall also keep due Account and Register of all issues and returns of Books as the same shall be made.

4. Books to be issued by the Librarian, pursuant to law, shall be returned as follows:

A Folio, within three week;

A Quarto, within two weeks;

An Octavo or Duodecimo, within one week.

No member shall receive more than two Folios, three Quartos, or five Octavos or Duodecimos, within the terms aforesaid, unless where so connected as to be otherwise useless,

5: Any person authorised to receive books from the Library, who shall not return them within the time specified, shall, for every days detention thereof, forfeit, for

A Folio, one dollar, per day;

A Quarto, fifty cents, per day;

An Octavo or Duodecimo, twenty-five cents, per day.

Which forfeiture may, for good cause, be remitted by the President of the Senate and Speaker of the House of Delegates, for the time being, in whole or in part, as the case may require.

6. When any person, authorised to receive books, shall prefer to take a book for the limited time, without removing it from the Library, he shall be allowed to do so, and to preserve his priority for the use of such book for the time limited, in like manner as if he had withdrawn the book from the Library; and the Librarian shall keep an account and entry of all such cases.

7. Books returned shall be delivered to the Librarian, to be examined whether damaged or not, and if damaged the person returning them shall not receive another until the damage for the first shall be satisfied.

8. When any person, authorised to receive books from the Library, shall lose the same, he shall not be entitled to receive another until he shall have satisfied and paid the Librarian, for the book or books so lost.

9. During the Session of the General Assembly, books shall be delivered upon the order of the presiding officers of either House, for such books as they may require during the Session, to be returned by their Chief Clerks at the close of each session.

10. Books for the use of the Governor and Council, shall be delivered to the order of the Clerk, returnable by him at the close of each session.

11. Books for the use of the Court of Appeals, shall be delivered to the order of the Clerk thereof, returnable by him at the close of each session.

12. There shall be retained in the Library, all Maps, Charts, plans of Fortifications, Buildings, or other designs, and all Manuscripts; volumes of plates or engravings; books accompanying the Charts, Plates and Engravings; tables of Chronology; volumes of Newspapers; one set of the volumes of any Encyclopedia or Dictionary of the Arts; one set of the volumes of any Geographical work, Gazetteers and Dictionary of Languages. Of the above none shall be taken from the Library by any person, without special permission, in writing, from the Governor, the President of the Senate, the Speaker of the House of Delegates, the Chancellor, or the Chief Judge of the Court of Appeals, except in cases where the presiding officer of either House may require any of them for the immediate use of the House.

13. It shall be the duty of the Librarian, four days before the termination of every Session of the General Assembly, to present to any Member of the General Assembly, a list of the books which he has received from the Library, and not returned; and in like manner a list to any Judge, and on the last day of the session to members of the Council.

14. The Librarian shall, one day before the termination of every Session of the Legislature, furnish the President of the Senate and Speaker of the House of Delegates, with a list of the names of such members of the Legislature as shall not have returned the books received from the Library, together with the description and value of such books, and also the value of the set to which they may belong, and of the amount of forfeitures with which they may stand charged; and it shall be the duty of the President and Speaker to inform the Houses of the fact, that they may, in their discretion, adopt such order as may be necessary.

15. When any Senator or Delegate shall obtain leave of absence for the remainder of any Session of the Legislature, it shall be the duty of the President of the Senate, or of the Speaker of the House of Delegates, as the case may be, to ascertain of the Librarian whether such Senator or Delegate shall have returned the books which he may have received from the Library, and have paid the forfeitures which may have been incurred by him; and in case of failure, the same proceedings shall be had as are directed in the 14th rule.

16. The Librarian shall collect all forfeitures accruing for books taken from, and not returned to the Library.

17. All monies arising from fines and forfeitures, shall constitute a part of the Library Fund, and shall be accounted for, to the Joint Committee of the two Houses, who are charged with the disposition of that fund.

18. The Librarian shall, during the first week of every Session, present to the Joint Committee on the Library, an accurate statement of all monies received and expended by him during the preceeding year; as likewise, of other matters connected with his duty and office—under the foregoing rules.

Upon considering the subject of rules, proper to be observed in the Library of the State of Maryland, we do order and direct that the foregoing be observed.

B. S. FORREST,
President of the Senate of Maryland.

THO. WRIGHT, 3d,
Speaker of the House of Delegates, Md.
